GENERAL FIELD TRIP RELEASE FORM
(Specific permission will be sought for each separate field trip.)

Field trips are a regular and carefully supervised part of our program. Parents provide our only source of transportation. Field trips are limited to enrolled Medford Methodist Pre-Kindergarten School children only.

In the past, we have visited apple orchards, pumpkin farms, dairy farms, and the fire station. These may change on a yearly basis. At this time, please sign the following permission slip so that we know your child may participate in our complete program. Specific permission slips will be sent as the trip occurs in our programs. Please remember throughout the year that these slips must be signed and returned or your child will be not be allowed to accompany us.

I hereby give my permission for my child to go on planned field trips beyond the school property, with adequate adult supervision. I assume full responsibility for all normal risks involved.
