If you or your parents have any questions or concerns about any of this information (or any of our seasonal plans) - or if you will be unavailable at any of the times listed - please let me know as soon as possible. (609 953-3805 or 3806; Crlrlly@aol.com) You'll notice that we have no scheduled rehearsals for the last TWO weeks in December. Enjoy your time off (you will have earned it), but don't forget that we will be singing on Sunday mornings till January 6. (Then you'll get a few Sundays off while we learn some new music!)

The sound of our choir has been just amazing so far this year, as I'm sure you've heard from other others. This is partly because of the many talented singers in our membership, but also because you have been willing to work hard with me during rehearsals - most of the time. We have quite a bit of Advent and Christmas music to learn and perfect during the next several weeks, so I hope you will be willing to continue with your high level of musicianship and enthusiasm - along with a considerable effort at self control - at our coming rehearsals. Don't forget that your music will enhance the Christmas experience of many people!

I DO hope that you and your families or friends will be able to come to my Open House on December 21. Drop by any time after 7:00 and feel free to stay as long as you like. This is a nice way for our choir folks to relax and enjoy each other's company.

Our first rehearsal of 2008 will be Thursday, January 3 (with Russian tea included). Then...there will be just eleven rehearsals till Easter!
